

REBUTTAL TO THE ARGUMENT AGAINST PROPOSITION C

The people who signed the argument against Prop C represent Chula Vista's old guard political establishment. These special interests have dominated Chula Vista for decades now, and they are still trying to hold on to power by doing what they always do when they feel threatened. They launch personal attacks, this time an attack against respected community leader Earl Jentz. Let them know their slash and burn tactics will not work in Chula Vista. Yes on C!

The reasons for this initiative are clear:

- 1) Prop C sets fair salary and term limits for the city attorney.
- 2) Prop C ends the special interests' ability to spend your money to chase their schemes. Just last year the city attorney, along with the Mayor and Councilmember Bensoussan, spent $200,000 of your money to hire private attorneys to help them secretly takeover demolition of the South Bay power plant. When the truth became known, the full city council acted in public to end the money grab. Prop C would have stopped this waste and would have required the full city council to be involved from the beginning.
- 3) Prop C allows the full city council to appoint a lawyer when the city attorney is conflicted or the subject of an investigation. Independent counsel provisions were created in the aftermath of the Watergate scandal and exist at every level of government. Read the Impartial Analysis. Stop the fox from watching the hen house.

Yes on C!
